Italian Canadians/Italian Americans: Voices from Paesani in North America.

Please, Join us at the Fratellanza Club for this special evening of double feature!

“Barbieri”: a 2007 interview documentary to the Italian community of barbers in Toronto whose motto is:

In life one needs two things: good health, and a shave.

Written and directed by Corrado De Luca and Roberto Veri (2007, in Italian with Eng. Subs, 44 min)

“Italianamerican”: in 1974 Martin Scorsese interviewed his parents about their life as Italian Americans in New York. A must watch of storytelling with just a camera rolling, a Sunday gravy on the stove, and a plastic covered couch!

Written and directed by Martin Scorsese (1974, 47 min, in English with CC)

NO RSVP NEEDED, free event open to all!
On Friday, April 18 @the Fratellanza Club (1140 66th St, Oakland)
