The Club Goes to the Movies

on Friday, October 30

Free Entry! Free Popcorn! Bar opens at 6pm, movie starts at 7pm

STANNO TUTTI BENE (Everybody's Fine)

Matteo (Marcello Mastroianni) is a retired Sicilian man who wants to have a family reunion. When most of his adult children cancel their trip to Sicily, Matteo decides to take the train to them. On each visit to a different part of Italy, he learns about the truths that his family has been hiding from him.

Stanno tutti bene (1990, 120 mins), in Italian with English subtitles
Starring Marcello Mastroianni, directed by Giuseppe Tornatore

NO RSVP NEEDED, free event open to all!
On Friday, October 30, at the Fratellanza Club (1140 66th St, Oakland)
For info: please call or text Mattia (510)289-2058